ART SALES INFORMATION:

The Tahoe Art League sponsors several events involving the sale of art. Artists must determine the sales price of their art including sales tax.The Tahoe Art League retains a Resale Certificate for both the State of California and Nevada which enables artists to sell their art at T.A.L. sponsored events. The Tahoe Art League files reports and pays taxes to each State for artists participating in any event involving the sale of art.The Tahoe Art League provides bookkeeping, general liability insurance, State sales taxes and Visa / MasterCard credit card services. Artists are required to donate 15% of net sales to the Tahoe Art League to offset the cost of services. Social security numbers are required for bookkeeping and submission of State sales taxes. Information is kept confidential with restricted access to the Treasurer.

TAL membership does not guarantee participation in TAL exhibits. Artwork is subject to jurying.

Waiver of Responsibility (Required for participation in shows/exhibits)

The Tahoe Art League does not provide coverage for injury to the Artist member or their property, including their works of art. I hereby release the Tahoe Art League from any legal responsibility for damage or loss resulting from exhibition of any or all of my work at any locations, galleries, or shows sponsored by the Tahoe Art League. I certify that any work exhibited by me in Tahoe Art League shows or exhibitions will be my own original work, not copies of the work of any other artist living or dead and/or under copyright, or exact reproductions of photographs under copyright. It is understood that all reasonable care of artwork will be taken, however, the Tahoe Art League assumes no responsibility for any works entered in any exhibition sponsored by the League, or injury received at any Art League sponsored event or gallery. I take full responsibility for myself, and all of my work at any exhibition or gallery at any location.
